Children In Need Appeal - Friday 14th November 2025

Dear Parents,

As you may be aware, the Children In Need appeal is fast approaching and we have been busy planning a fun day to help raise some money for this fantastic cause. The BBC Children In Need charity supports disadvantaged children across the UK and they support over 3000 charities and projects.

On the appeal day, everyone is invited to come into school either wearing spots or sports wear.

We thought the option of sports wear would be perfect, as we will be taking part in the 99 Miles in November mission on this date! We are asking for donations via the JustGiving page below, but if you are not able to donate this time, please still join in by wearing spots or sports wear!

We are also aware that some of you may have recently donated to the 99 miles in November mission, so we completely understand if you do not wish to donate to another charity this month.

We are unable to accept cash donations however donations can be made via the following Just Giving link:-

Thank you very much for supporting our event and let's work together to raise even more than last time!
