World Book Day

Dear parents and carers,

This year, World Book Day takes place on Thursday, 6th March 2025, and we would like to invite you to join us in helping your child make the most of this special occasion.

In the lead-up to World Book Day, we will be holding 'A book, a brew, and a biscuit' event in the hall on Tuesday, 4th March at 2:45 pm. If you make your way to the front entrance, we'll bring your child to you so can spend twenty minutes or more sharing a story in the hall. If you wish to come after school, please pick up your child as normal. Light refreshments will be available as well as plenty of exciting books to choose from.

If you are unable to join us, there will be a further opportunity for you to read with your child in class on World Book Day, where doors will be open for parents and children to start the day sharing a story or activity together. We will ask you to say your goodbyes at half past nine, when children will continue the day's exciting reading activities. Children can dress up as their favourite book character or wear their own clothes.

There are a number of different ways to celebrate World Book Day and here are just a few ideas that you can do together at home. We would like you to select one that works for you and your family and then ask children to bring in something to show and tell from it. We will then create a photobook of all of the activities shared.

Dress a potato as your favourite character	Bring in your favourite book.	Share a book with a trusted adult (and share a photograph with school)
Read a text you wouldn't usually choose.	Create a puppet of one of your favourite book characters.	Design a bookmark to inspire other readers.
Create a book quiz.	Visit the library	Take a photo of yourself in an extreme read (Reading in an unusual place)
Create a PPT book trailer.	Swap a book with a friend.	Create your own book or comic.

We look forward to seeing you all and sharing a love of books together.

Kind regards
Mrs Moffett
